Those confounded Singapore editors must have hagged all the stray papers we suppose.

A capital joke is told regarding some of the Calcutta Opium firms, who actuated by the most philanthropic considerations for their own treasuries, undertook to induce the belief on the part of the government, that they were deeply anxious for the public welfare. The thing beppened in this wire. The stock of Opium in the Godowns at Calcutta, is rather large at present the supply for 1866 is rathor small, say 40,000 chesta Bengal drug altogether. The philanthropists petitioned the Government, instead of dividing equally these 40,000 chosts into twelve sales for next year, to adopt the sliding scale, making the first
